

"Adolescent Health Care and Awareness Program"

JSS organized an interactive training session focused on adolescent health care and awareness, aiming to educate young girls on essential health issues, hygiene practices, and overall well-being. The session empowered participants with knowledge to make informed decisions and lead healthier lives.