

For the Women By the Women. Project

Thirty groups have been formed through participatory rural appraisal, base line survey conducted among the members of the groups. Each group consisted 25 members where there area President, Secretary & Cashier in each group. The effective IGA skill trainings have been conducted among the group members.

Thirty groups divided into three round, 1st, 2nd & 3rd round. Learning session have been conducted among the group members as per need assessment . Takal 5 lac a revolving fund have been distributed with the all round . Installment down by weekly with saving of group members. The group members have been awarded through discussion in learning session regarding different social problems such as early marriage , dowry , birth registration , marriage registration , violence against women , they have also awarded regarding their right , their linkage have been developed with different service provider as well as up parishad , DAE , DLS , DFO , Hospital , Matree Shadhon , Social Well fare department etc .

